

Connecting Cultures, Creating Solutions

Experience

Intelliwings helps solve problems in global business development, cybersecurity, technology, and intelligence analysis pursuits. Experienced in working with people in and from more than 25 countries, Intelliwings gives clients a greater understanding of how to team with customers and partners from diverse technical, cultural, ethnic, religious, and national backgrounds to provide products, services, and answers needed to create success in international projects.

Partnerships

Innovate Globally, Partner Locally

Intelliwings is based in the Washington DC region and teams with an international network of industry partners to provide solution services and partnerships for global clients. By partnering with leading technology providers, Intelliwings enables clients to gain simplified and efficient access to expert business-to-business and business-to-customer product and solution providers to meet client and customer needs.

Services

Intelliwings offers a variety of services for international clients to fulfill project requirements. Professional consulting services Intelliwings provides include:

- Teaming clients and partners with expert solution providers
- International business development and executive sales engagement at trade shows and conferences
- Review of client business strategy proposals and marketing materials
- Business lead acquisition
- Business registration and regulatory compliance and certification
- SDVOSB government contracting

- Cybersecurity, international relations, and intelligence analysis
- Engagement with industry, government, and think tanks to identify global business opportunities
- Research international trade shows and conferences for business development and sales return on investment potential
- Trade show prioritized customer engagement lists, event registration, exhibitor insurance compliance purchase, booth design, and audio-visual and computer support
- Multicultural training and orientation for regional languages and customs
- Japanese, Arabic, and additional language translation services
- Social media engagement

Technologies

Intelliwings provides technology solutions from a wide portfolio of partner company capabilities:

- Foretix® VaultCore™ encryption key management cybersecurity and privacy technology system
- NTT Data® AW3D™ Global 3D high-resolution digital terrain and urban mapping
- Synspective® synthetic aperture radar (SAR) satellite imaging and reconnaissance (available in 2021)
- Ultra-long duration aerial drone security surveillance and telecommunications relay
- Aerial drone imagery, video, and 3D surveying and mapping
- Geospatial terrain and metro area data intelligence analysis
- Oohashi Deployable Repty Board™ ruggedized all-weather surface board system for heavy machinery sites, mobile helipads and HAZMAT
- Reshet Graf™ InfraredID® passive infrared ID systems for military, police, security, and rescue teams
- Bluefield® satellite-based methane emissions detection and monitoring (available in 2021)
- Atlas Solutions® Southeast Asia personal and physical security monitoring and protection services
- Smart City technology

- Industrial cybersecurity monitoring
- Communications infrastructure
- Jeenie® real-time language interpretation and cultural analysis video conferencing
- Additional custom technology solutions as requested

Leadership: Daniel Vasquez

Daniel Vasquez is the CEO and founder of Intelliwings, LLC. He brings his extensive global experience to clients to help international partners cooperate in diverse professional pursuits. Daniel served in the US Air Force for 24 years as an international relations and intelligence analysis director in multinational leadership duties throughout Asia, Europe, and the Middle East, retiring from military service as a Lieutenant Colonel. He is a veteran of numerous worldwide operations where he led international teams in a wide range of crisis and humanitarian disaster relief operations. He is the recipient of many commendations and awards including the US Air Force's Asia-Pacific Senior Intelligence Analysis Director of the Year Award and he provides mentoring for undergraduate, graduate, and small business startup entrepreneurs.

Intelliwings is a CVE-Certified Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB)